Chair and Vice-Chair

Rule 8

1. Pursuant to Article 4.1 of the Agreement, and subject to Rule 8.2, the role of Chair shall rotate alphabetically.

2. Where a meeting is hosted by the Secretariat, the meeting shall appoint by consensus a Chair in accordance with Rule 8.1. Where a meeting is not hosted by the Secretariat, the Chair shall be a representative from the host country.

3. Subject to Article 4.1 of the Agreement, the role of the Vice-Chair shall rotate alphabetically whether or not the meeting is hosted by the Secretariat.

4. Pursuant to Article 4.1 of the Agreement and subject to Rule 8.3, the appointment of the Vice-Chair shall be a representative from the delegation of a country other than that of the host country.

5. The Chair and Vice-Chair shall remain in office until their successors are appointed at the next meeting. At the first session of each meeting, the current Chair shall preside until a successor is appointed by the meeting.

6. The Chair may exercise the speaking rights of his/her delegation in the absence of another representative of the same delegation at the meeting.

7. In addition to any other functions conferred by these Rules, the Chair shall declare the meeting open and closed, direct discussions, ensure observance of these Rules, accord the right to speak and announce consensus and decisions.
8. In the absence of the Chair from the meeting, the Vice-Chair shall assume the duties of the Chair in the meantime.

9. Should the Chair resign or otherwise become unable to complete a term of office, the Vice-Chair shall assume the duties of the Chair.

Responsibilities

Rule 9

1. The Secretariat shall be responsible for arrangements for and administration of meetings, including secretarial and interpretation and translation services, if required, and preparation and circulation of meeting documents, both in printed and electronic copies. It shall have custody of the archives of meetings and shall generally perform all other work which the meeting may require.

2. The Secretariat shall be responsible for securing funding for the meeting, and shall make a financial contribution to the host country to assist them meet the costs of hosting the meeting.

3. The host country shall be responsible for providing the venue for the meeting, arrangements for accommodation and transport, communications facilities, secretarial facilities and assistance and stationery and office supplies.

4. The Secretariat shall consult with French speaking members on the most cost effective options regarding the use of interpreters and translators for each meeting. This consultation shall be carried out at least six months prior to the holding of each meeting.

Conduct of Business

Rule 10

1. Two-thirds of members shall constitute a quorum.

2. In raising a point of order concerning the meeting’s procedure, a representative may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion. Any point of order shall be decided immediately by the Chair. A representative may appeal against the ruling of the Chair which appeal shall immediately be put to the meeting for decision. The Chair’s ruling shall stand unless overruled by a consensus decision of the meeting.

3. Substantive motions and amendments shall normally be circulated to members with the Working Papers for the meeting at which they are to be considered. However, unless any representative calls for a postponement, the Chair may permit discussion and consideration of amendments without previous circulation.

4. Subject to Rule 10.2, the following motions shall have precedence, in order, over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:
   - to suspend a sitting;
   - to adjourn a sitting;
   - to adjourn debate on the question under discussion; and
   - to close debate on the question under discussion.
5. Permission to speak on a motion under Rule 10.4 shall be granted only to the proposer and to one speaker in favour and two against. The motion shall then be put to the meeting for decision.

6. If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the meeting, unless it decides otherwise, shall decide on the proposals in the order in which they have been tabled.

7. Any representative may request that parts of a proposal or of an amendment be decided separately. If an objection is made to the request for a division, the Chair shall permit two members to speak, one in favour and the other against. The request shall then be put to the meeting for decision.

8. If a request under Rule 10.7 is adopted, those parts of the proposal shall then be decided as a whole. If all the operative parts of a proposal or an amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to be rejected as a whole.

9. A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it adds to, deletes from, or revises part of, that proposal. An amendment shall be decided before the proposal to which it relates is decided. If the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be decided.

10. If two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the meeting shall first decide on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, then on the amendment next furthest removed, and so on until all amendments have been decided. The Chair shall determine the order of decision on amendments under this Rule.

11. A proposal or motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before a decision has been reached, provided the motion has not been amended. A withdrawn proposal or motion may be reintroduced by any other representative.

12. When a proposal has been either adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session, unless the meeting decides otherwise. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and such other person as the Chair may decide.

Decisions

Rule 11

1. In accordance with Article 4 of the Agreement, the work of the meeting shall be conducted on the basis of consensus of all members, taking into account the practices and procedures of the Pacific region.

2. In the event that a decision is required, that decision shall be taken by consensus of the members ensuring that their views have been properly considered and taken into account in reaching that consensus.

Reports

Rule 12

The Report adopted by each meeting shall be printed and circulated by the Secretariat to members within two months after each meeting and tabled at the next SPREP Meeting.
