

MARE 490 & 490L – Sea Turtle Conservation & Ecology (4)

Only Offered
in Summer

This course gives students an all-encompassing look at the exceptional natural history of these ancient marine vertebrates

In addition to lectures students will discuss research papers and dissect and compare anatomy of 3 reptile species

Labs will consist of students to participating in cooperative field studies of endangered hawksbill and green sea turtles

