Response from the Secretariat:

The Secretariat confirmed that there will be an evaluation component for each of the online courses and there will be a facility on the Moodle platform for evaluation and feedback.

The Secretariat confirmed their support for the translation of course materials to French and the Manager PCCC will discuss this matter with the DCCR and the Consultant.

The Secretariat confirmed the inclusion of JICA training modules in the online platform.

In response to the query from French Polynesia, Sala noted that the information on the platform automatically converts into an app. The whole course can be downloaded on an app using a smartphone, therefore people in remote areas will be able to continuously learn once they have the app on their phones. The information on the online courses will also be shared via USBs to countries where there is remote access.

In response to MFAT New Zealand, the Director of CCR noted the distinct roles of the PCCC and CCR. The CCR will play a central role in supporting the delivery of the functions of the PCCC. The outputs and activities from existing CCR projects will be reviewed and where appropriate aligned to the PCCC functions and themes. This will assist the PCCC to provide immediate value to the region and act as catalyst for other organisations to actively engage with the PCCC.

In terms of the remit of the work in negotiation support, it will remain a SPREP function, given the sensitivities on the nature of the different makeup of the groupings and the negotiating platforms. The Secretariat commented that while the negotiations work is CCR’s remit, the capacity building component will be delivered through the PCCC.

JICA - PCCC CBCRP Capacity Training Program (Ofa Kaisamy – Manager PCCC)

Three virtual training programs implemented in 2020. Acknowledged the support from CBCRP and CCR. PCCC Joint Coordination Committee meeting is scheduled for 8 December to discuss training program in 2021 – 2022. A live calendar of training will be established under the Pacific Climate Change Portal (PCCP) by February 2021. Possible extension of the CBCRP Project until 2022.

Calendar of events for the JICA-PCCC CBCRP developed and will be shared with the Members once finalized.
Updates on the PCCC Theory of Change (TOC) - ‘Ofa Kaisamy, Manager PCCC

Theory of Change provide the starting point for the key steps of the MERL Framework. TOC underpinned by the concepts set out in the PCCC Strategy and Business Plan 2018. Acknowledged all the comments received from MFAT and CCR.

TOC and workplan sets out the activities, outputs and outcomes the ‘casual pathways’ which connect them to the PCCC vision, as well as the assumptions which underpin these pathways.

Acknowledged the assistance from the IMPACT project under CCR in developing the Theory of Change for the PCCC.

Risk Matrix Updates - ‘Ofa Kaisamy, Manager PCCC

Risk Register latest update on 20 November 2020. Risk Matrix attached as Annex 4.

Recent developments in the PCCC implementation and ratings for some of the risk ratings have improved.

Comments on the Risk Matrix:

Cook Islands noted that SPREP has a plan to develop a sustainable financing strategy and suggested to also consider developing an investment plan that provides the cost for the work that PCCC is currently implementing and for future activities. Also suggested that it would be good for the Partners and the Board to be aware of the training activities, at least 12 months ahead.

French Polynesia noted that some of the items with high risks are similar risks identified under the Pacific Resilience Partnership (PRP). French Polynesia would like to know if the PCCC will be working closely with the SPREP Communications team for the PRP. Suggested if this can be virtualized so actions can be delivered quickly, and risks can be lowered.

New Zealand noted the PCCC will be a great place to facilitate the coordination and harmonization across the different programmes.
Response from the Secretariat:

The Secretariat noted the difficulty in getting traction and engagement of the PRP taskforce propelled the development of a dedicated communications committee. The Secretariat is anticipating establishing a dedicated communication committee for the PCCC. The PCCC will be working closely with CCR and the SPREP Communication team.

The meeting adopted the recommendation noting the feedback from the board members.

Other Matters

- New Zealand suggested for the Secretariat to review the TOR and shared to the Advisory Board for comments and approval.

- New Zealand, Cook Islands and Samoa confirmed their support and their participation in upcoming PCCC meetings.

Next meeting date

The next meeting date is tentatively scheduled for 26 March 2021
