DATE: 7 March 2023

CIRCULAR: 23/13

SUBJECT: Announcing the Pacific Climate Change Centre Free Online Open-learning Courses on Climate Resilience and Access to Climate Finance

Dear Focal Points,

I am pleased to inform you that six (6) Open-learning Courses on climate resilience and understanding access to climate finance are now available on the Pacific Climate Change Centre (PCCC) e-learning Platform, URL: <https://spreptraining.moodlecloud.com/login/>

The PCCC Open-Learning Courses aim to support anyone who is willing to contribute to achieving the goals and objectives of climate change policies, strategies and plans in PICTs. The courses are designed to enhance understanding on climate risk, vulnerabilities to the impacts of climate change, climate adaptation and mitigation options, as well as to develop the capacity and skills to prepare a theory of change, problem & objective tree, and logical frameworks as the basis for project development and implementation.

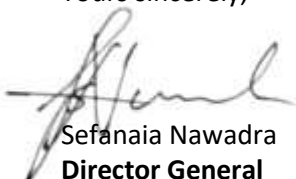

The list of 6 Open-Learning Courses is as follows:

1. Climate Change Adaptation and Disaster Risk Reduction through Structural approaches
2. Ecosystem-based Adaptation and Mitigation
3. Enhancing Climate Resilience and Safe Water Access in rural areas in the Pacific
4. Enhancing Climate Resilience in Tourism in the Pacific
5. Health Systems and Climate Change Enhancing Resilience and Low-carbon Development in the Pacific
6. Understanding Access to Climate Finance: Project planning and management

The courses have been developed based on a training program delivered by the Pacific Climate Change Centre through the Project for Capacity Building on Climate Resilience in the Pacific (CBCRP-PCCC), in partnership with the Government of Samoa, SPREP and the Government of Japan through JICA.

We kindly request the dissemination of this information to relevant stakeholders including the general public.

Yours sincerely,

Sefanaia Nawadra
