SUBJECT: Call for nominations: Pacific Climate Change Centre- ISPCCR dual mode training on "Strengthening Public and Private Collaboration to address Climate Change impacts in the Pacific", 1 – 30 September 2025

Dear Focal Points,

I am pleased to announce that nominations are being accepted for the Regional Training Stage 2 on "Strengthening Public and Private Collaboration to address Climate Change". This training will be delivered in dual mode (online and in person) as part of the PCCC JICA Project for Innovative Solutions for the Pacific Climate Change Resilience (ISPCCR). The training will be held from 1-30 September 2025 through the PCCC e-learning platform and in-person at the PCCC in Apia, Samoa.

This training program aims to:

- Strengthen participants' knowledge of the potential and benefits of public-private collaboration for climate change project including learning about the methods and cases on public and private collaboration,
- Enhance understanding of innovative climate change adaptation and mitigation options for some of the key sectors,
- Enhance knowledge and skills on project management necessary for the formulation, implementation, and operation of climate change project, and
- Obtain skills for formulating climate change projects through public-private collaboration.

We welcome a maximum of 5 nominations per country from government and non-government institutions including the private sector. Please note that one (1) of the 5 nominees will be required to attend the in-person training in Apia Samoa, funded by the ISPCCR Project.

Please refer to the attached General Information for ease of reference.

All nominations are to be submitted using the attached Nomination Form and must be endorsed/approved by the SPREP Focal Point. Kindly send all nomination forms to the ISPCCR- PCCC Project Team at ispccr.pccc@gmail.com, at your earliest convenience, and no later than Monday 18th July 2025.

Yours sincerely,

Easter Chu Shing
Acting Director General
